Sandburg High School to Show New Addition At Open House May 25

Formal acceptance of the new wing to Carl Sandburg high school by the board of education will be marked with an open house Sunday, May 25 at which the public will have an opportunity to make a tour of the plant.

The new addition, which with some remodeling to the original building, has cost approximately $950,000, includes 18 classrooms; a girls' gymnasium; two additional commerce rooms; a cafeteria with a seating capacity of 500; a metal shop; electric shop; varsity locker room; administrative offices; new health department and a music department.

The space formerly occupied by the administrative offices has been converted into a book store and rooms for the counseling department.

Completion of the expansion program brings the student capacity to approximately 1,500. There are now about 1,100 enrolled. Supt. W. O. Fischer said that the new plant will suffice for the next two or three years but by that time it is expected the board will have to build another school. It has the site now.

According to Supt. Fischer, all indications point to a substantial growth in the district and in the next five years it is expected there will be five or six thousand additional homes occupied in the district. All of this, of course, points to a demand for more educational facilities.

Orland Park Hills is expected to have 400 or 500 homes completed in the next year and another development, Sundale, which is near Tinley Park but is just inside the Sandburg district, is expected to have the same.

There are subdivisions in the district now building up and it is expected that many more will be opened. The southwest section, experts predict, is in for a phenomenal growth during the coming decade and all communities there will be affected.

The open house at Sandburg, to which everyone in the area is invited, will be held from 1 to 5 o'clock the afternoon of May 25.

ICC Orders New Crossing Lights At Orland Park

(CNS) After many years of endeavor on the part of village officials for improved protection of persons who use grade crossings in Orland Park, the Illinois commerce commission has ordered the Wabash railroad to take action.

The ICC order approved plans to add cantilever arms with flashing lights to the automatic signals at the 143rd street crossing and also to install automatic flashing light signals at the 153rd street crossing just west of 104th ave.

It was just about a year ago that the Orland Park village board and representatives of the Wabash and the ICC held a lengthy conference in the village hall and arrived at an agreement to eliminate some of the hazard at the 143rd st. crossing and to install gates on 153rd.

Sun is Factor

The village wanted full gates on 143rd street but the ICC representatives said it was improbable that the commission would approve them in view of the fact that the Wabash now uses only a single mainline track thru Orland Park. Under such circumstances, it was stated, gates are not considered necessary.

The 143rd street crossing has had flashing lights for some time but inasmuch as the thoroughfare runs east and west it is next to impossible to ascertain whether the lights are working when the sun is shining. There have been a number of accidents at this crossing, some fatal.

Stake Out Mokena Sewage Plant; Will Start Laying Mains June 1

Mokena officials are scheduled to go to Chicago today to sign the bonds that will finance the village sewer project. After the bonds are signed and given a final check by Chapman and Cutler, legal experts, they will be delivered to the purchasers and work can be started.

Robert Hamilton, village engineer, with a representative of the Lindblad Construction Co., are scheduled to stake out the sewage treatment plant this week-end and work should be started on that part of the program next week.

Blaine Saxton, of Mokena, who has the contract for the sewer lines and the lift station told the village board Monday night that he would be ready to start work June 1.

Mayor James Marti and Village Clerk Alvin Sorensen will sign the bonds today. The village is issuing $100,000 in general obligation bonds and the Mokena State bank is designated as the depository for that amount. The cash realized from the $280,000 of water and sewer revenue bonds will be deposited in the American National bank at Chicago.

Plan Groundbreaking

There will be a formal groundbreaking ceremony to herald the beginning of the sewer project but the time will not be announced until next week. The Lindblad Construction Co. contract is for $147,800 while that of Blaine Saxton is $145,671. Both of these prices were well within the estimate made by Engineer Hamilton.

The sale of $380,000 of bonds plus a federal grant of $69,000 will give the village ample funds for the project, it was pointed out.

The price of the treatment plant site, legal fees, fiscal agent fees, engineering fees and possible contingencies must be figured above the total contract price of $293,471, it was explained. Money remaining after all bills are paid will be applied to reduce the indebtedness, it was stated. Some of the bonds, it was pointed out, had to be discounted to meet interest charges that will accrue during the construction period.

Final arrangements for the sale of the bonds were made at the special meeting of the village board held Monday night.

Donna Miller

Swinford Unit No. 1098 announces that Donna Miller, a student at Lincoln-Way high school, has been chosen to attend the 1958 session, June 17-24 on the campus of MacMurray college at Jacksonville.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, Center road, Frankfort.

The purpose of Illini Girl's State is to provide citizenship training for approximately 485 high school girls; to afford them the opportunity to live together as self governing citizens; to learn "by doing" the duties and responsibilities as well as the rights and privileges of American citizenship, in order that they may better understand and participate in the functioning of our government.

Girl's State is a program of education in the American form of government, eligibility is limited to girls who are in their third year of high school and are selected because of their honesty, leadership, good character, scholarship and cooperativeness.

Two of the girls at Illini State will be selected to attend the "Girls Nation" at Washington, D. C., the first week of August. Here the girls are

An appropriation ordinance providing for expenditures of $48,556 for the 1958-59 fiscal year, has been adopted by the village of New Lenox. It provides for new street lights and a storm tile.

Passage of the ordinance does not mean that the village will spend $48,000 in the coming year, it was explained, nor does it mean that $48,000 will be available to spend, but the items must be appropriated for in the event they are required and the funds are on hand.

Last year the appropriation ordinance called for total expenditures of $32,541, but the amount spent was only approximately $23,000, village records show.

Of the $32,541 appropriated last year approximately $10,000 came from taxes levied on real estate. It is estimated by those familiar with such things that practically the same amount will be forthcoming this year.

Approximately $12,000 was paid into the village coffers from its share of the state sales tax last year and it is expected the amount this year will be about $14,000. The village also takes in $1,200 in saloon licenses and averages around $4,200 in traffic fines, and it will have a cash balance that is expected to cover a special improvement program, included in the new appropriation ordinance, that comes to $13,500.

The regular appropriations for the coming year will total $35,056 as compared to $32,541 (Continued to page 16)

Board Says "No" to Church But Not Positively

Mayor James Marti, of Mokena, took exception to the article in last week's issue of the News-Bulletin because it stated the council took a vote to deny the request of St. John's church. The board did not take formal vote, the mayor said. But the members present did indicate they were in agreement that since Village Attorney Raymond Hoolehan had cited cases and given a written opinion to the effect that the village could not legally turn over a strip of park land to St. John church to use as a driveway, there was nothing else for them to do but deny the request.

The board again did not vote on the question when it came up last Monday night but Mayor Marti reiterated that granting the churches request would be an illegal action but notwithstanding he hoped that eventually the board would be able to do something for the church.

The request of St. John church for a piece of the park property to serve as a driveway to its new addition was originally filed with the village board

Investment Course on Lincoln-Way Adult School Program is Popular

The adult education program at Lincoln-Way high school has wound up business for another year and will reopen next fall.

One of the courses that has been popular deals with investments, conducted by Maurice P. Angland, of Mokena, who has been in the investment securities business for more than 20 years. He is now with Reynolds & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange at their Chicago Heights branch. Mr. Angland writes a regular weekly financial column for the Semmler newspapers.

According to Mr. Angland, the field of investments is far too broad to cover in ten weeks of evening classes, but that students can secure information that will enable them to do much better than average in their analysis of financial reports and informed consideration of investment situations. The subjects covered include general knowledge of investment markets and their mechanics, inflation, consideration of dollar depreciation with causes and effects, comparison of various industries and market prices with the aid of simple mathematical tools, the background of Mutual Funds and their purpose with methods of comparing the values of each fund, and other special subjects of interest to the particular class.

Immediately after leaving college, Mr. Angland entered the American Consular service and was stationed in Stockholm, Sweden, where his duties were largely confined to commercial research. After about three years he returned to this country and joined the investment banking affiliate of the Chase National Bank of New York in their Minneapolis office. He remained with the Chase organization until the Banking Act forced commercial banks to divest themselves of investment banking affiliates. After this he became a partner in an investment firm and later moved to the Chicago area.

It is expected that the investment course will again be offered at Lincoln-Way in September.

Seek Limit on Ice Cream Parlors At Orland Park

Can a village board limit the number of legitimate retail establishments within its boundaries? That is the question posed to the Orland Park board at its meeting Monday night by Albert (Kirk) Wheeler.

Wheeler, who operates a restaurant and soda fountain said he was speaking for himself and three others who are in the same line of business, E. F. Enders, A. S. MacKenzie and James Davidson.

They now pay a license fee of $15 a year to the village. Wheeler wanted to know if this fee could be hiked to a figure that would tend to discourage any rush of persons who might want to rush into the ice cream trade within the boundaries of the village.

Village Attorney Raymond Pieper said that in his opinion the village could limit the number of businesses, except in the case of saloons and under Illinois law the season apparently is always open on dramshops. Wheeler was invited to seek an opinion on the question from the Illinois Municipal League.

Frankfort C. of C. Seeks More Members

The Frankfort Chamber of Commerce is growing, it was announced this week by the secretary, Clark Bennett, Jr., and by the date of the next meeting May 28, it is expected that the membership will have reached 65 or 70.

Those in charge of the formation of the organization point out it is still possible to become a charter member.

Gives Process For Establishing Park District

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
(Ex. Sec. Taxpayers Federation)

The initiating process for the formation of a park district is the filing of a petition with the county judge. The petition must define the territory and name the proposed district.

After receiving the petition, the county judge orders an election to determine the question and to elect five park district commissioners. Electors are notified of the election by the county clerk giving 20 days' notice in a newspaper published in the proposed district, or if none be published therein, then in a newspaper of general circulation in the area.

If the proposition carries, the five persons elected as park commissioners shall meet within 30 days after the declaration of the result of the election and decide by lot the term for which each shall hold office. Two shall serve for six years; two for four years, and one for two years, respectively, from the date in the next odd year an election would otherwise be held.

As is true for other local governments, the principal tax levied by a park district is for the general corporate fund. For many years, previous to the Park District Codification Act of 1951, there were many types of park districts, such as Submerged Land Park Districts, Pleasure Driveway and Park Districts and Township Park Districts. Such districts have various tax rate limits, with township park districts having the lowest rate limit. In 1955 the general assembly passed an act which makes it possible for all park districts then in existence, by referendum, to come up to the same ultimate limit, 10c per $100 of valuation. All new districts created since the effective date of the 1955 Act (July 11, 1955) commence with a corporate fund limit of 8c, but with the right to increase this limit to 10c by a later election.

Park districts have additional taxing powers. With voter approval, they may levy a tax of not to exceed 4c per $100 of valuation for recreational fund purposes. Also by a successful referendum, they may levy an additional corporate tax of 4c.

Thus, park districts, totalling approximately 144 in Illinois, fit into the definition of special districts. They are a separate entity, with a governing body and taxing powers.

Mason Is Strong Advocate For Reduction of Federal Income Tax

By CONGRESSMAN N. M. MASON

The Sadlak-Herlong tax bills propose a five-year program of tax reduction and tax revision, changing the present schedule of 20 to 91 per cent rates on personal income into 15 to 40 percent rates, and the corporation 52 per cent rate to a 40 per cent rate.

The writer has had three tax reform bills before the Congress for some time that, if adopted, would bring about the same ultimate result:

1. The first tax reform we propose to make is to place a tax ceiling or limitation upon all Federal income taxes, corporation taxes, and estate taxes, a ceiling that can only be lifted during war times, and then only by a 2/3 vote of the Congress. Why should this be done? In 1848, a little over 100 years ago, Karl Marx announced a two-point program for the destruction of capitalism and the promotion of communism: (1) All estates should be confiscated thru a 100 per cent inheritance tax, and (2) A steeply progressive graduated income tax should be levied upon all incomes.

Under the New Deal we have traveled a long way upon the road that Karl Marx laid out. True, we have not as yet reached 100 per cent confiscation of inheritances, but we do go up as high as 70 per cent; we have reached 91 per cent confiscation of all large incomes; and we have reached a 52 per cent confiscation of corporate incomes.

The experience of England should be a warning to us. England's heavy graduated income tax, coupled with her confiscatory inheritance taxes, forced her into government ownership and socialism. We are traveling down the self-same road. It is time to call a halt.

II. The second tax reform we propose to make is the repeal of all present Federal excise taxes now on the books—except upon liquor and tobacco—and substitution of a flat 5 per cent manufacturers' excise tax, uniformly applied to all end products.

The repeal of present excise taxes would cost the Treasury about $5 billion per year. Imposition of a flat 5 per cent manufacturers' excise tax upon all end products would produce about $5 billion per year to make up for the loss. This changeover in our excise tax program would have the following definite advantages:

(1) We would get rid of the present hodge-podge, hit-and-miss, inequitable system of excise taxes—taxes levied without rhyme or reason; and we would lower all present 10 per cent excise taxes to 5 per cent.

(2) The change-over would tend to equalize the total tax burden upon our people, without hurting any one producer or consumer, and it would constitute a long step forward toward the establishment of a well-balanced, equitable, and efficient Federal tax system.

III. In our third tax reform we propose to bring about tax equality between all business competitors. Corporations now pay up to a 52 per cent tax upon their profits. Cooperatives, Mutual Savings Banks, Building and Loan Associations, Credit Unions, Government-Operated Businesses, etc.—all in competition with taxpaying corporations—now pay little or no Federal income taxes.

As a consequence of this present tax inequality between business competitors, co-ops, and the various mutuals are able to use the major part of their profits for expansion, for buying up taxpaying enterprises in their own lines of business. Thus they keep on expanding year after year, increasing in size and momentum like a huge snowball rolling down a mountain side.

The greatest tax authority in the Nation, the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue, rendered an opinion in 1951 saying that under our Constitution and Laws, Congress has the right to tax co-ops in the same manner and for the same reason that congress now taxes corporations.

The real question is, "Does Congress have the courage to do so?"

Engineers for the railroad and the ICC believe the addition of cantilever arms with flashing lights will provide adequate protection.

The signals on 153rd street will be an improvement that has been sought for a long time by residents who travel that road. It also will be of benefit to those domiciled at the NIKE base, it was said.

Cook county will pay the cost of installation and the Wabash the cost of perpetual maintenance. Installation costs are now being figured by the railroad.

The Wabash also has the equipment, according to Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., for automatic safety signals on 159th street.

Sues County For Banning Orland Trailer Court

(CNS)—Cook county has been sued for refusing to allow the establishment of a trailer court on 40 acres of vacant land on the south side of 159th street between 90th and 94th avenues in Orland township.

First National Bank of Blue Island, trustee of the property, brought suit for a declaratory judgment in circuit court.

Attorney Robert E. Haskins said the county board has refused to rezone the parcel from farming to B-1 business. The suit asks the court hold farm zoning of the property invalid and unconstitutional.

The site is one-half mile east of Mannheim and 159th street. Haskins said there are tourist cabins, a frame restaurant, and a gasoline station on the northwest corner of the intersection, a dining room and cocktail lounge on the southwest corner, a trailer court on the southeast corner, and a motel on the northeast corner.

In view of this, the suit contends prohibiting the plaintiff from establishing a trailer camp is not justified.

The village of Orland Park, the town and the school all opposed location of a trailer camp at the proposed site.

THE COURT QUESTION

One of the main arguments advanced for support of the proposed reorganization of the Illinois court system is that it will provide a speedier disposition of cases and thus eliminate the congestion that now marks many dockets.

It is pointed out that it takes several years under the present system before a case is heard. There is no dispute over this. As the lawyers say, we are willing to stipulate that there is a considerable time lag between the filing and the hearing of a case but we are not willing to go along with the contention that the present judicial system is responsible for this.

A lot of cases that aren't brought to trial or settled could be disposed of if the lawyers were willing to do a little work today rather than tomorrow. As a class lawyers are the greatest procrastinators in the world and to each "manana" is their watchword. The very nature of their profession makes them that way. They have learned thru experience that time really is a great healer and not only may win a case for them but may also put more money in their pockets.

If one is defending, delay is like having an ace in the hole in a five-card stud game. Witnesses may die, move away remember differently, become forgetful, or the plaintiff, worn out and frustrated by a long line of continuances, is ready to settle for most anything he can get.

Therefore, lawyers don't rush—they walk, and walk slowly, with a few halts along the way but they shouldn't blame the judges or the court system for the delays for which they themselves are responsible.

About two weeks ago in Will county, Circuit Judge James V. Bartley struck 166 jury cases from the docket because none of the lawyers was willing to go to trial.

In Cook county judges could strike thousands of cases for the same reason.

And in our opinion there would be no change under any judicial system devised, lawyers being lawyers, unless there was a law that no attorney could get paid for his services unless the case was disposed of within six months after filing.

It seems to us, however, that speed is not a goal to be considered in the trial of lawsuits. To us—we may be old fashioned in this, but we still believe that the paramount purpose of a judicial system is to provide justice. Delay may hinder justice but so may speed so let's leave time out of it.

The question is whether the present judicial system provides the people of Illinois with justice. We think that it does and we are not ready to blame the system because it is old. Law cases are decided everyday somewhere on principles and precedents that go back a thousand years or more.

There is a tendency today make a god of speed and set up altars to mass production. Anything that is older than yesterday is classed as horse and buggy and one hears our present judicial system described as such.

We think our present judicial system will serve the public well. We know what we have, and Heaven knows what we may get if the eager beavers start tinkering with our basic law, the constitution of Illinois.

Tinkers are dangerous. They never know where or when to stop and too often continue until they completely wreck what they started out to repair.

By DOLORES ANDERSON
Tel. New Lenox 3651

Members of the Busy Hour 4-H club met Friday night, May 9 at the Schmuhl school with their leader, Mrs. Jack Chestnut and seven members present. The girls discussed going to Day Camp at Highland Park on July 10th, and made plans for their next meeting to be held June 6 at the school. Hansena Van Borg gave a talk on first aid; Sandra Kooyenga talked on various kinds of seams; and Dolores Kooyenga talked on making sandwiches.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Nowicki spent the weekend in Mokena with Mrs. Jetta Glow and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thode and Mr. and Mrs. George Thode and son Kurt, spent Sunday in Waukegan, as guests of his sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mr. Ewald Kalwitz. The celebration was in honor of Mothers Day and George Thodes birthday.

Mrs. Virginia Leonhart is ill in her home.

Cub Scout den 1 of Pack 41 met Wednesday afternoon after school at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Fred Cortright, with Mrs. Vernon Newsome assisting. The boys practiced their skit for the coming pack meeting, and finished work on the pot holder plaques they made for their mothers for Mother's Day.

MAN A LITTLE THING

"... We are still hoping the wisdom man has gained over the ages will rule, that man will find a star as the wise men did, rather than be guided by a beeping, man-made satellite and all the other ingenious Journal."

"The Poet"

Under the quiet, scholarly atmosphere of Carl Sandburg high school, feverish activity is taking place. Actors, actresses, directors, stage managers, make-up artists, wardrobe women—all are working frantically! It's difficult to believe that all these members of the production staff are actually students of the school. The speech classes, directed by Mrs. Edward Klocke, are in the process of preparing four one-act plays for a competitive program.

These plays are being given free of charge as the students want to learn every aspect in play production without thought of profit. All the plays are suitable for the entire family, so make an evening of it. Remember this date: May 23; this place: Carl Sandburg high school, 133rd and LaGrange road, Orland Park; this purpose: pure enjoyment.

"Utter Relaxation," by Bert Griscom, typifies a happy, married couple of many years standing. On this day, Wilbur, the husband, is feeling the effects of a slight cold, and Amy, his wife, is smothering him with loving care. Amy feels that nothing cures a cold faster than a day of "Utter Relaxation." The result of this quiet day is hilarious. Joan Gerza plays the part of Amy; Warren Johnson, the role of Wilbur; Rochelle Millis, the role of Emma Froswick, Amy's friends; Shelley Hofmann, the role of Ella, the maid; Dick Searles, the role of Mr. Clement, Wilbur's employer; and Ed McGhee, the part of Joe McGrath, a telephone repairman.

"Mayor for a Day" has a breezy, satirical quality which gives it instant appeal. In every city we can find a counterpart of Mayor Fuddy, Sunshine Sal or Samuel J. Smugg, if we look in the dark corners among the administrative machinery. A fast-moving comedy about civic problems, this play appeals to young and old alike. The cast includes: Lois Juravic, Sharon Dykstra, Ed Siemsen, Ken Aggen, Judy Carroll, Wayne Bore, Jon Miller, Barb Bickham, Fred Wasill, Judy Poe, Roberta Caul, and Keith Newberry.

"The Lavender Kite," by Gladys Seidlhuber, is a pitifully beautiful and fragile portrait of a woman. Lila, wistful and lonely, has made a hat and hopes that Roy, her husband, will take her out for a walk with it some sunny day. Roy is more interested in his "club" and would be ashamed to take Lila to the "club"—she would be out of place with her hats, her walks, and her inane chatter. She wins him over until his friend, Arch, comes. Roy leaves, and Lila is left to her loneliness. Lila is played by Dolores Warner, Tom Barton plays Roy, and Archie, Roy's friend, is played by Ed Lundin.

"The Lost Elevator," by Percival Wilde, is an improbable comedy. It is an amusing play in which a motley group is caught between floors in an elevator. Their escape is delayed. The elevator is populated by Bob Paulik, as An Engaged Man, Joe Militello as A Small Man who is in a Hurry, Dave Kats as A Big, Easy-Going Man, Ron Hall as A Book Salesman, Richard Weaver as A Messenger Boy, Jim Beck as An Elevator Operator, Marge Dondlinger as A More-or-less Engaged Young Woman, Frances Wood as A Nice Old Lady, Lois Simmons as A Romantic Old Maid, Virginia Dembosz as A Housewife, and Barbara Schneller as A Girl Who Has an Appointment with Dentist.

The speech classes will be competing with each other with the one-act plays. Plan to come and support your choice of plays.

Housing Loans Available Now to More Farmers

An expanded farm housing program designed to speed up farm building construction and improvement was announced recently by Vincent L. Brandow, county supervisor, Farmers Home Administration.

Now an owner of a farm in which the operator plans to produce at least $400 worth of agricultural production and on farm commodities for sale or home use may qualify for the four per cent long-term housing loan, provided that he meets other standard eligibility requirements. Formerly, an eligible applicant had to own a farm that produced a more substantial part of the operator's annual cash income.

Borrowers may use loan funds to build, improve, or repair farm houses or other essential farm buildings, and to provide water for farmstead and household uses. Mr. Brandow said that in addition to financing major construction, the loan funds can help meet many other needs for farm and farm home modernization such as adding bathrooms, utility rooms, better kitchens, and many other improvements to the home as well as to farm service buildings. While tenants and farm laborers are not eligible, the owner may borrow to do construction work or make improvements for them.

The loans are made to farm owners who need credit to finance building improvements or repairs, but find that adequate credit is not available thru banks or other regular credit channels. The interest rate is 4 per cent and loans may be amortized over periods up to 33 years.

Further information on farm housing loans can be obtained at the local office of the Farmers Home Administration located at 224½ Liberty St., Morris. Vincent L. Brandow, county supervisor, is in charge of the five counties of Grundy, Kendall, Will, LaSalle and Kankakee.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Better on the Level

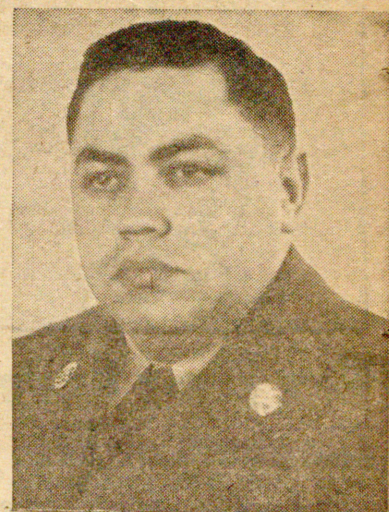

Up and down roller coaster rides may be wonderful sport for children of all ages, but one feels better on the level. For dieters, the roller coaster route—the ups and downs of weight control—may be more dangerous than overweight itself. They, too, are better off at the level of their ideal weight.

Research indicates that two all-too-common diseases, long associated with excess poundage, may be aggravated by roller coaster shifts in weight. The names for these diseases have become household words: Hypertension, known to most of us as high blood pressure; atherosclerosis, as the gradual narrowing of the body's blood vessels. No longer are these conditions confined to old age. They now are sapping the vigor and vitality of an ever-younger age group.

To help keep these dividends of youth—vigor and vitality—doctors are encouraging adults to learn their right weights and keep their level. They are cautioning against alternate periods of fasting and feasting... against diet fads that lead to ups and downs in weight. Such diets fail, because they are starvation diets... are not diets to live by. A favored regimen includes eating foods from these four groups, each day: Bread's and cereals, meat and meat alternates, milk and dairy foods, fruits and vegetables.

Helping to determine the amount of these foods and their accompaniments that you should have daily are your age, physical activity, and body build. Not every woman, five foot two with eyes of blue, should weigh the same nor aspire to the same figure set by fashion. Each person has his own weight at which he feels and works best. Check with your doctor. Your ideal weight may be greater than you think.

Don't Fall For Phony Calls of "Inspectors"

Don't be duped by current solicitations for advertising by phony "inspectors" from some vague "Inspector's Office" warns the Better Business Bureau.

Such "inspectors" and the directory or publication he allegedly represents, have no connection whatsoever with any official organization or association of the state, county or city. They have no official connection with any law enforcement agency or the Illinois Department of Labor.

Over a period of years "hot shot" solicitors have attempted to coerce business concerns into believing they would receive county or city inspectors if contributions were made to some special consideration from state, directory or guide. Various names have been used such as "State Inspectors Office", "Cook County Food Inspector", and others.

Most such solicitations were conducted by telephone. The caller may attempt to sell a full page advertising, usually around $300. If he meets resistance the request will be reduced to $15 or even $10, or he may say, "Our records show you gave $100 last year. How about $200 this year?" In keeping with such "fast buck" operations, the solicitor wants to send a "pick up" for the check at once "because we are ready to go to press."

During these conversations, solicitors have used such pressure pitches as "We were in your plant the other day. We can do a lot for you... we are having a collection, how much you going to give?"

In some instances these solicitors pose as inspector, becoming arrogant, insistent, demanding and even threatening, with remarks such as "Firms that don't cooperate may have inspectors all over their plants... you know it's a good idea to be on friendly relations with us."

Regardless of the name over which these solicitations are made, the Better Business Bureau advises against buying the advertising or making any donations. Don't be intimidated. Report the matter to the state's attorney office or call the Better Business Bureau.

Even though some of your fondest dreams fail to materialize, you can be thankful that many of your nightmares don't come true either!

BREMEN HIGH UNIT

At their May 7 meeting, Bremen community high school Parent Teacher Association announced the name of the winner of their annual scholarship.

Miss Sandra Hodurek of Oak Forest was presented to the membership as the selection of the scholarship committee. Mrs. Conrad Hoyer told the group it was a very difficult decision to make, as several young people were so qualified and in need of assistance, but there was only one scholarship to give. However, the committee will assist the alternate in every way they can, in order that she may reach her goal for her chosen career.

Mrs. Evelyn Einspahr of Calumet City installed the new officers of which Mrs. Donald Johnson of Midlothian was honored as the new president.

The Home Economics department of the school presented as entertaining as well as enlightening style show, with the Educators, formerly known as the Future of America, group presenting a panel of interesting information on the teaching profession. Mrs. P. L. Jochum gave the annual president's report which resumed the work of the organization for the entire year. Following installation of new officers, Mrs. Jochum was presented with her past-president's bar by the installing officer.

Talks given by members of the Frankfort 4-H club at the May meeting included "How to Measure for First Year Skirts and Suitable Materials", given by Kay Ann Schram; and "Utensils and Measuring Cooking Ingredients" by Pam Pet-nuch; also a talk on first aid by Karen Rahm.

Games were played and refreshments were served. The hostesses were April and Marcia Schweizer, and Elaine Mager.

The meeting was conducted by April Schweizer, president.

The next meeting will be held in the Olsen home at 7 p.m. May 21.

Will Hold Tryouts for Pony League

Sessions to Be Held Thursday, Friday and Saturday This Week

Tryouts for boys between the ages of 13 and 15 years old for places on Pony League baseball teams in Tinley Park will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 15, 16 and 17 at 6:15 p.m.

Boys who have not registered may still do so during the tryouts to be held in Memorial Park.

On Monday and Tuesday of the following week managers and coaches will choose teams.

To date the number of 15-year old boys who have registered for Pony League is very disappointing. As this age group gives an incentive not only to managers, but also to the young players, a special invitation is issued to 15-year olds to register for this league. Forms will be available at the tryouts or may be obtained from Francis Meakim of 6673 Pine Point drive.

The tryouts will be held as follows:

Thursday—6:15 p.m.—14 and 15 years old
Friday—6:15 p.m.—13 years old
Saturday—10 a.m.—13 years old—1:30 p.m.—14 and 15 years old.

Mokena youngsters interested in playing baseball this summer are invited to register at the village hall Saturday, May 17, between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

There will be two leagues represented in the community this season, the Small Fry, it's farm team and the Babe Ruth.

At the time the youngsters register they are expected to pay a fee of $1.

The farm team for the Small Fry is made up of youngsters in the 8 to 10 year bracket while the Small Fry ages run from 10 to 12. Top age in the Babe Ruth league is 15.

The adults who run the leagues elected officers last week at a meeting in the Carpenter street school. Robert Gilmore was chosen president; Alvin Sorensen, vice president, Mrs. Lester B. Roberson, secretary and Laverne Yunker, treasurer.

The organization is to hold a meeting at Carpenter school next Monday evening at 8 p.m. and parents of diamond talent are urged to attend.

Trailer Camps Create Burden For Schools

Cook County Superintendent of Schools, Noble J. Puffer announces the results of a survey made of trailer camps in suburban Cook county and the number of children enrolled in public schools from these trailer camps. William Spurgin, director of research in the county superintendent of schools' office, prepared the study, which shows that 47 elementary school districts have a total of 79 trailer camps with 6,960 trailers parked in them.

From these nearly 7,000 trailers there are 1,522 pupils enrolled in public schools. The largest enrollment from trailer camps in any school district is 165 in District 109, Bridgeview. But perhaps the districts with the most serious problem is Elk Grove, District 59, where 147 children, over one-fifth of their entire enrollment, come from trailers. Present plans indicate that the number of trailers in this district will double before September. 119 trailer-camp pupils are enrolled in the public schools of Posen-Robbins, District 143½ and 116 in Berkeley, District 87.

The seriousness of this problem for the schools lies in the fact that they contribute very little to the support of schools. A trailer may be assessed as personal property, perhaps, at an average of $1,000, and the land on which it stands at a somewhat higher rate than unimproved land. Probably the tax on the land gets paid but a check of one camp of about 170 trailers shows that only eight trailer owners have paid the 1956 personal property taxes (now one year past) a total of about $575. Twenty children attend school from this camp.

Eight camps are reported as limiting to some extent the admission of children of school age. Two camps make a cash contribution to the schools of $2 or $3 per month per child in school. In a third camp parents say they pay $10 per year for each child of school age but the school reports that no payments have been made to the school.

Midget Racing Back Again At Joliet, May 24

Midget auto racing returns to Joliet May 24, when the little cars line up for the season opening seven event program at Joliet Memorial Stadium.

Possibly all five of the track's former champions will be competing this year, in the seventh season at Joliet's quarter-mile oval.

Several Joliet area drivers also will return. Among them are Bernie Wilhelmi, Sam Robinson, Bill Barnes, Bob Hauck and Corky Singer, all of Joliet; Ray Elliott and Newt White of Lockport; Jack Chapman of Aurora, and Paul Kerber, Elgin.

On the program May 24, a Saturday, are four heat races, a trophy dash, 15 lap semifeature and 25 lap feature. Time trials start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

High Fertility Means Better Farm Living, Soil Conservation

SOIL fertility not only gives farmers a better living, but it is essentially important in cutting erosion losses and protecting the soil, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Illinois agronomists point out that lime, phosphate, potash and nitrogen mean higher crop yields per acre and lower costs of production for each unit the farmer grows," says the committee.

Equally important is the value of fertility as a soil saver."

Here is how it is summed up by agronomists at the University of Illinois' Dixon Springs experiment farm:

"High soil fertility nudges winter covers of small grains into leafier, denser blankets against runoff.

"Pasture sods grow thicker, with more numerous, healthy roots to mulch and protect the soil.

"Corn and grain produce thicker stalks and a spongy stubble to mulch and protect the soil."

And all these benefits spring from soil fertility, the agronomists point out.

A Clean Car Spells Safety

A clean windshield is important to safety. Let laminated safety glass protect you and the view.

Take a tip from the neatest girl in town, and let your good house-keeping show on the road. Washing the car you drive uses many of the same muscles prescribed in the best figure exercises.

Preparation:

1. Get into dungarees, sneakers, a shirt with the sleeves rolled up, and wrap your hair in a cotton scarf. Pull on a pair of garden gloves or your plastic dish-washing gloves.
2. Attach the hose AND the vacuum cleaner. Get a pail of warm water with some ammonia in it, a clean sponge and either a squeegee wiper or several dry soft clean rags.

Procedure:

1. Clean inside of car. Remove all litter from glove box, all clutter from shelf behind rear seats—galoshes, rubbers, umbrellas, comic books, toys, etc. Empty ash trays. Sweep, then vacuum thoroughly. If your car has vinyl plastic upholstery, wash it with a sponge wrung out of detergent and warm water, followed by a clear water wipe-down. Make sure flashlight has a working battery before replacing in glove box, that you replace only one each of maps you use regularly, that the glove box contains your insurance identification.
2. Close all windows. Incidentally a line along the exposed edge indicates the window is made of laminated safety glass, the only kind used in windshields.
3. Wash down outside of car with detergent. Rinse and dry.
4. Wash tires. Use steel wool if necessary.
5. Wipe on a thin film of auto polish. Allow to partially dry, then wipe off.
6. Finally, wash all window areas inside and outside with the warm water and ammonia solution. Wipe dry with a clean cloth or with a squeegee wiper.

You will then be looking through the cleanest windshield in the neighborhood, as proud of your clean, safe car as you are of your spring house cleaning.

Chemical Group Honors Students and Teacher

Seniors from 18 high schools in Will-Kankakee Grundy counties—one student from each school—who had the best record in science, were honored Saturday night at a dinner given by the Joliet section of the American Chemical Society at Valley View restaurant. Each of the students received prizes and certificates and their names engraved on a permanent plaque which is exhibited at the school.

The student, selected by the school, must have had at least three courses in science, three courses in mathematics and three years of English. Emphasis also is put on originality, independence of thought and ability to solve problems.

The winner at Lincoln-Way was David McGuire, of Manhattan, and a New Lenox youth, James Beaupre, was the winner at Joliet Catholic high school.

Sister M. Joan Preising, O.S.F. professor and head of the chemistry department of the College of St. Francis, was also honored at the dinner Saturday night. She received a bronze plaque as "Chemist of the Year."

This was the first year for this award and it is to become an annual affair. The award to Sister Joan was made because of her contributions to the teaching of chemistry, her research activities and publications and her value to the Joliet section of the American Chemical society. Many of her more than 100 former chemistry students attended the dinner to see Sister Joan receive the award.

Lincoln-Way Students Get History Awards

Two Lincoln-Way high school freshmen are among the 26 teen age historians who received Student Historian of the Year awards at the hands of Gov. Stratton last Friday in ceremonies conducted in the Illinois Building auditorium on the state fairgrounds at Springfield.

The two from Lincoln-Way were: Bill Stekelberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stekelberg, 833 S. Cedar road, New Lenox, and Judy Wiegel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiegel, Route 1, Frankfort. Two other students from Lincoln-Way whose articles were published in the Illinois History magazine this year also attended the affair. They were Janet Schwab, Mokena, and Everett Cline, Manhattan. The youngsters were accompanied by Ronald Larsen, of the history department at Lincoln-Way.

This was the 10th annual observance of student historian day.

The group from Lincoln-Way also visited the state historical exhibit, Lincoln's tomb and other places of interest in Springfield.

Joliet Summer School Will Serve Outside Pupils Too

Present plans call for conducting classes for pupils in grades two through six and junior high classes in mathematics, English, social studies and science. Tuition is to be $20 for the six week period with students residing outside of District 86 paying an additional $2.00 for book rental.

Students from outside District 86 should contact Miss Mary Welbes, director of the summer school. Miss Welbes may be reached at Washington Junior high school or at 1000 Plaza Dr., Joliet.

Country Club Hills

By MRS. CHARLES WHITE
Phone SYcamore 8-6620

Mr. Zenon Sykuta is the new superintendent of school District 160 (Cooper Grove). Mr. Sykuta has signed a two-year contract and plans to take up his duties on or about July 1. Mr. Sykuta has been acting superintendent of the Park Forest school system and brings with him a wealth of experience gained while helping Park Forest with its rapidly expanding school system.

Mr. Sykuta, a very personable young man of 37, his wife and three children are looking forward to moving to Country Club Hills and to becoming an integral part of the community.

Altho Mr. Sykuta is going to have a tiger by the tail for a little while his job can be made easier by the enthusiastic support of the entire community.

A series of coffee parties is being planned to introduce him to the parents and friends of the District and also to give us all a chance to chat informally with our new superintendent.

Incorporation

"What Can You Gain By Incorporation" will be the subject of a talk by Robert Dinerstein, mayor of Park Forest, at the May 19 Coopers Grove citizens committee meeting. The meeting will be held at the Coopers Grove school at 184th and Central ave., beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Dinerstein has had considerable experience in the problems of incorporation dating back to the early days of Park Forest. Mr. Dinerstein has served on the Park Forest village board of trustees since 1951 and has been mayor since 1955.

John L. Scott, Park Forest city manager, and Henry X. Deitch, Park Forest village attorney, and former mayor will accompany Mr. Dinerstein and all three will be available for questions.

Incorporation of Country Club Hills and its effect on surrounding areas has been discussed by many residents for the past year or so, and the area will soon vote on a referendum to incorporate. Everyone interested is invited.

PTA Program

The next regular meeting of the Cooper's Grove P-TA will be this evening, May 15, at 7:30 p.m. at the Central school—184th and Central ave.

This will be an especially enjoyable evening because the program will be presented by the first three grades of Central school.

Participating will be Mrs. Nona Schlunker's first graders who will do a folk dance, Mrs. Charlotte Davis' second grade who will present a choral reading and Mrs. Hazel Ramseyer's third grade who will perform a square dance. Both the children and teachers have worked very hard to make this program a memorable one, let's turn out in force to cheer them on.

Baby sitters will be provided so entire families can enjoy the program. Milk for the children will be available and, of course, cake and coffee and chatting time for the adults.

Boy Scouts

Troop 286 had a chicken and ham cook-out for their mothers last Saturday night at Black Bear lodge in Homewood. The boys did all the cooking themselves and even Duncan Hines would have given his stamp of approval to the charcoal grilled chicken and ham, baked potatoes and corn served up.

The Scouts challenged their mothers and dads to a baseball game but finally had to grudgingly admit defeat.

The evening closed with a song fest around the council fire.

Cub Scouts

Mrs. Hazel Ramseyer has taken over Mrs. Dorothy Ebert's den while Dorothy recuperates from her recent accident.

Mrs. Betty Spencer is in charge of the Bake Sale to be held at Garofalo's on May 25th jointly with the Boy Scouts.

Mother's Club

There will be a special meeting May 21st to wind up plans for the Fun Fair.

The Fun Fair will be held May 25th at the Central school grounds starting at 1:00 o'clock. In addition to the pony ride, (real ponies) attractions will include a bake sale, dart game, penny toss, grocery basket, fish toss, sewing booth, fish pond and many others.

Booths will include: Green Thumb, White Elephant, jewelry, children's books, records and toys.

Receipts are used for gifts for the school.

St. Joseph Catholic Church

The Women's Guild of St. Joseph church held its annual dinner, fashion show and installation of officers at Lincoln Heights restaurant last Tuesday. Mrs. Nell Francis of the Hills was installed as co-chairman of school department. Many women from the Hills attended this lovely event, the last meeting until September.

Mrs. Alice MacKenzie, chairman of the Christian education committee announces that Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ramser will serve as co-superintendents of the church school. Mr. Ramser teaches the intermediate class while Mrs. Ramser teaches the kindergarten age group.

All school age children (or those who will be in first grade in September) interested in daily vacation bible school in Country Club Hills may still register today by calling Mrs. MacKenzie at SY 9-5399.

Registration fee is $1.00 per child for the two week session which will meet daily from 9:30 to noon June 9-20 (except Saturday and Sunday).

The first general meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship here will be held Monday, May 26, 8:30 p.m. in the Homeowner's House. The Fellowship of Hometown Christian church will present the program. Mrs. Norman Nelson, temporary social chairman, will be in charge of refreshments. Mrs. Charles Van Horn, Temporary chairman, hopes to have everyone come to welcome the Hometown group.

Because of the PTA meeting the choir will rehearse on Friday night just this week. Because the Homeowner's House will be full of Boy Scouts, there will have to be another place to meet. At this writing it is still up in the air but by Friday it will be all settled. Call Mary Lupien SY 8-5467.

There will be an executive committee meeting May 23 at the Landeen's, 4510 W. 179th street.

Volunteer Fire Department

This coming Saturday, May 17 is the night we all can kick up our heels at the First Annual Fireman's dance to be held the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall in Homewood.

Proceeds will go to the purchase of much needed equipment for the department. Members of the department are now going door to door selling these tickets. It might be important to remember that these men are not professional salesman and would appreciate any support you can give, even if you don't care to kick up your heels—a contribution would be appreciated. Your fire insurance rates are lowered due to the efforts of these men who receive no pay for this hazardous work. Remember the slogan, You come to our dance, we'll come to your fire."

Miscellaneous

Sandra Raddatz, president of the graduating class of Cooper's Grove school wishes to remind all residents of the district that the eighth is still selling candy in order to raise money to take their parents to dinners before graduation. (Some English professor would love that sentence)

Mrs. Claude Fenton of El Monte, Calif., is here visiting her son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Horn of Baker street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gaertner and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, next door neighbors on Baker street did not know each other before moving to the Hills. Imagine their surprise when they discovered that not only did they share the same anniversary date but also the same year, time of day for the ceremony and same denomination church in addition to both spending their honeymoon in New Orleans. An exceeding large fifth anniversary celebration was held by both couples at Math Iglar's Casino last Saturday night.

Dot Ebert is home from the hospital, and feeling stronger each day and her husband, Arthur is still in St. Francis hospital, Blue Island, but mending nicely. The Eberts were injured in an automobile accident a short time ago.

A new addition to the Cooper's Grove school is Mrs. Mary Joan Tietjen, 17760 Baker ave., Mrs. Tietjen is assisting Mrs. Nona Schlunker with the first grade which is sorely overcrowded.

About 30 friends and relatives helped little Michael Wachala celebrate his First Holy Communion last Sunday. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wachala of 4461 W. 179th st.

Newcomers to the community are Nancy and Marvin Beste of 4511 W. 179th street. The Bestes bought the Skovron house when the Skovrons moved to Erie, Pa. They have three children.

Well, as that lovable old cynic La Rochefoucauld once said, "It's better to be a rabble rouser instead of just one of the rabble."

Rayson Would Have U. S. Pay For Storm Drain

Ins. Rayson 1-24?

Inclusion of surface water control in federal appropriations for the Cal-Sag instead of creating a new local taxing body was urged this week by Leland H. Rayson, of Tinley Park, Democratic candidate for congressman, 4th District.

Declaring county taxes are already too high in the south suburbs, Rayson, who is also Bremen township assessor, opposed the proposal of the storm drainage committee of the Regional Association of South Cook Will County Municipalities to raise $1,250,000 a year through a 12½ cent per $100 added tax rate to be levied by a new Surface Water Protection district in the Calumet watershed.

"This would create another taxing body that likely would remain long after the flood problem has passed," Rayson told the Argo-Summit Lions club Tuesday.

"Such protection should logically be a part of the Calumet Sag waterway development, reaching into two states and three counties. It is the type of public works the federal government is fully justified in financing."

Rayson urged immediate submission to Congress of an authorization resolution for this work to be added to the Cal-Sag program.

"Because of the recession, work on storm flood control should be begun as soon as possible," he said. "If elected to Congress, I will have no doubts about supporting all phases of the waterway development so vital to this district. A Federal drainage control program on the Little Calumet River is a justifiable public works measure."

Rayson cited to the Lions his three point waterway program: 1, Support of Reciprocal Trade Act to spur foreign trade which will be lifeblood of the waterway; 2, speeding of appropriations so the work may help employment and the bringing of new industries to the Calumet area, and 3, creation of a comprehensive Port Authority financed by tolls and rentals to attack all problems accompanying the development.

Trust men and they will be to you; treat them greatly and they will show themselves to be great.—Emerson

More Brass for Texas Eastern; Declare Divid.

A major expansion in the top echelon of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation's management was announced today by Orville S. Carpenter, president, following the annual organizational meeting of the board of directors. In announcing the action of the board, Mr. Carpenter named three senior vice presidents, each in charge of an operating division of the company, a new administrative vice president and a financial vice president.

The three senior vice presidents elected were John F. Lynch, Baxter D. Goodrich and Millard K. Neptune. Paul R. Haas was made administrative vice president and J. W. Hargrove was named financial vice president.

In making the announcement, Mr. Carpenter said that continued growth of the company, diversification of its activities and extensive expansion of the geographical area of its operations has made it necessary to reapportion certain functions of the management organization of the company. He stated that "the new organizational structure has been designed to take greater advantage of the executive talents of our top management to meet the problems brought about by continued growth and diversification."

The regular quarterly dividend of 35 cents per share on the common stock of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation was declared by the board of directors of the company at a meeting last week. The dividend is payable June 1 to stockholders of record at the close of business on May 15.

Read Luke 17:5-10
Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing. (Psalm 100:2.)

Time, talent, and treasure are the heavenly gifts to human beings. No day should pass without our thanking God for signs of His mercy and love. It is right to dedicate these gifts to the Lord. How many hours of the day do we spend for Christ and in His service?

When we surrender to Him our talents, we get His blessing. If we give Him our treasure with glad hearts, He gives us great joy. Blessed are those who say daily, "Everything for Jesus."

Esther, a girl of six, heard in Sunday school that true Christians sacrifice all they have to the Lord. On the floor she put a big plate. On it she put her best-loved treasures: her doll, her picture book, and her money box. At last she stood on it herself and said, "Here you have me, dear Lord, with all I possess."

PRAYER: Dear Lord, we dedicate to Thee all our time, our talents, our treasure. We know Thou hast given us these gifts and Thou rightly expect a real sacrifice from us. Christ has done all for us on the cross; so we want to do all for Him. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Blessed are we if we say daily, "Everything for Jesus" and act accordingly.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The spiritual status of man created in God's image will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" will include the following from Luke (17:20,21): "And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here, or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

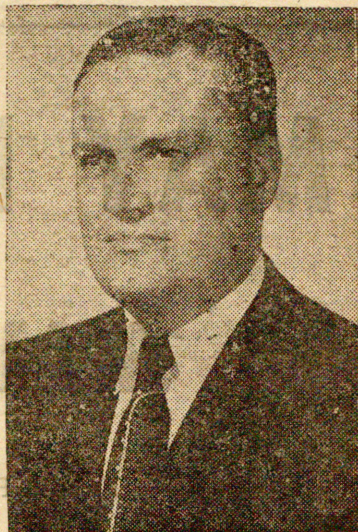

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (476:28-32): "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you.' Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal."

The Golden Text is from John (3:6) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

TEACHING NEEDS

"The worst mistake that the American people could make would be to let the government take over the public schools. What we need is for the teachers to go back to the system of teaching rather than the present system of 'developing the personality' of the student. A free mind will develop far grater than one that is controlled by radicals."

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The usual gauge of stock prices on the New York Stock Exchange, are at their highest level for 1958 altho in most instances, considerably below the levels reached in 1957. As is usual, the commentators who attempt to predict the short swing action of the stock market, have again been proven wrong. Fortune Magazine some months ago reported the results of a five year study of the accuracy of their predictions and came up with the fact that these day to day predictions are about as accurate as flipping a coin to decide a course of action. One of the market letters reports a conversation between two floor brokers in the Stock Exchange Club. Said one, "Who's doing all the buying in your stuff? The reply was, "Darned if I know—must be people who don't read the newspapers."

The more serious analysts of the market advance point to evidence of further inflation with no end to dollar erosion in sight and also that the stock market is about the only investment vehicle offering protection against depreciation in purchasing power. Over a longer period, the stock market has always compensated for dollar depreciation by rising at least as much as the depreciation. The Northern Trust Company in its May report on business conditions, points out (1) that steel production has not changed significantly for five weeks;; (2) manufacturers sales and incoming orders showed a smaller decline in March than in the preceding month after seasonal allowances; (3) orders for certain types of machine tools increased; (4) in some industries orders were aided by increased placement of military contracts; and retail sales of automobiles have exceeded output for a month or so.

The First National City Bank of New York points out that farming is now the bright spot in the economic picture. Some students insists that farm income is the first hit by a slowing down in business generally. Farm produce prices are about 10 per cent above a year ago and about 18 per cent above the 1955 low. Farm income for the first quarter of 1958 was about 10 per cent above the 1957 period. Altho some prices may be lower in 1958, total farm income increase is expected to have an increase approaching 10 per cent.

Analysts basing their studies mainly on population growth, point out that that births in this country decreased from 2,909,000 in 1925 to 2,377,000 in 1935, but by 1953 were above 4 million. These students point out that marriages tend to be concentrated in the 20 to 30 age group and that about 25 years after the birth rate reached the low point of the 1930's, the persons of marriage age will increase.

Investment services and many analysts have been referring to the coming of the "Golden 60's" as a period of another substantial upsurge in the economy. An important part of this optimistic feeling is due to expected increases in family formations and population expansion. This is expected to result in increased demands for goods of all kinds. The present annual rate of about 1,000,000 new homes per year is expected to bring 1,300,000 new homes as common place with much higher totals in peak years. Collateral construction of schools, churches, stores, roads, etc. will bring about large demands for the many items going into such projects.

THE BREMEN BEAT

By EDWIN BRUELL

The annual junior-senior prom will be held at Bremen community high school Saturday, May 17, from 8 p.m. to 12.

The theme, Moonlight Magic, was suggested by three Bremen junior, Dawn Hartwig, Dianne Koss, and Betty Jean Powers.

Tickets are $5 a couple, to be purchased in advance at the school. One member of each couple must be a junior or senior at Bremen.

The committee consists of the junior class officers, Charles Smith, president and chairman, who has charge of decorations along with James Mannaioni, secretary; William Hoffman, vice-president, publicity; and Dennis Tattum treasurer, entertainment.

Chaperones are Delores Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Dellinger, Clarence Heller, Robert Adams, Vernon Peterson, Glenn Starner, and Donald Madson. Glenn Vann, a junior class sponsor, as assisting with arrangements.

Spring Concert

A spring concert was presented at Bremen community high school last Friday, May 9, featuring the advanced girls' chorus, advanced mixed chorus, and band.

Accompanists were Sharon Jochum and Judy Erickson.

Ruth Schmidt directed the choral groups and Paul Scharf-enberg the band.

Will Receive Honors

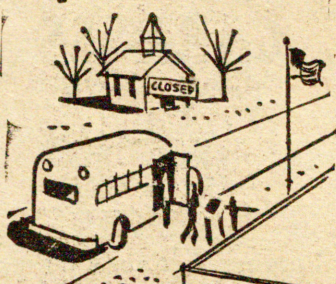

Gregory Chapman and Joseph Zmuda, sophomores at the University of Illinois and alumni of Bremen Community High School, received college honors recognition at the annual Honors Day convocation in the University Auditorium, Navy Pier, Friday, May 9, at 10:15 a.m.

The college honors awards are made on the basis of scholarship. Students receiving them must rank in the upper three per cent of their classes.

Gregory is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman, 2447 W. 175th street, Homewood, and Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zmuda, 14416 Palmer avenue, Posen.

The awards were announced in a letter to T. R. Birkhead, Bremen superintendent, by C. H. Gillett, chairman of the Honors Day Committee at the University of Illinois.

20,454 Visit State Hospitals At Open House

A total of 20,454 persons visited the state's mental hospitals and schools during "Open House" day, April 27, Governor William G. Stratton announced today.

The Tinley Park hospital ranked second among the state's institutions in the number of visitors with approximately 2,000.

The Anna State hospital had a total of 6,656 visitors, an all-time record for any single institution.

Open House at the 12 state mental hospitals and two schools for the mentally retarded was held in observance of Mental Health Week as proclaimed by the governor from April 27 to May 3.

Dr. Otto L. Bettag, director of the Department of Public Welfare, state that, "although public interest in the state's facilities for the mentally ill has grown steadily each year, never before has the public demonstrated such interest in and concern for the nation's gravest health program."

TEEN-AGE TYCOONS

It's estimated that the nation's teen-agers have about $7 billion a year to spend (and spend it!) Thirty per cent earn their money baby-sitting and in part-time jobs; 45 per cent get allowances, and 22 per cent (the real smart ones) collect from both sources.

L-W, Sandburg Students Win Science Awards

Three students at Lincoln-Way high school and one from Carl Sandburg were among the 77 receiving "outstanding awards" for Junior Academy exhibits at the 51st annual meeting of the Illinois Academy of Science held last Friday at the University of Illinois.

Les Michalec, of Lincoln-Way had an exhibit of sewage treatment by Imhoff tank method, and John Watkiss and Robert Mathews, also of Lincoln-Way, presented "Hopewellian Culture of Illinois." Roger Brown, of Sandburg high, had an exhibit of radiation and sun flower seeds.

The above exhibits all qualified for outstanding awards.

Four Lincoln-Way students received first awards, Bruce Lewin and Kenneth Lorenz for "Algal Culture—Its Nutritional Value and Uses." Stanton Korista, for "Deuterium Oxide," and Thomas Dunham for "Hydrogenation of Oleic Oil."

Second awards went to Joost Sluis for "Perfect Metal" and to Charlene Kurnat and Kathy Zum Mallen for their study of blood.

Third awards went to William Hathaway on "Photomicrography," and to Barbara Machtemes on "The Eye—Perfect and Im perfect."

LeRoy Bitner was given honorable mention on his home communication set.

In addition to capturing an outstanding award, Sandburg entrants in the state science exhibits walked off with five firsts two seconds and four third place awards.

First place awards went to Tom Barton and Tom Cripps, junior chemistry students, and their project, "Controlled Fusion Reactions," Donald Kirsch and LeRoy Neitzel, freshman biology students, whose project was "Planaria Regeneration"; and Betty Kasper, a freshman biology student who received first award with her project on "The Clam."

Second place awards went to two freshmen biology students, Renee Carey and Patricia Geister for their project "Torso Sections."

Third place went to Dick Hamilton and Joe Hobbs, two senior chemistry students, whose project was "Telescopy"; Bill Nev in a senior physics student, with his project "Ultrasonics" and Bruce Deardorff, a sophomore biology student whose project was the "Human Brain."

The students were accompanied by Frank Wing, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Hopkins of the Sandburg Science department. Mr. Hopkins is an officer in the Junior Academy.

H. Neil Hardy, head of the science department at Lincoln-Way who accompanied the students from there to Champaign, served as editor of the Junior Academy of Science yearbook for the current year and Ted Dunham of Mokena served as student editor. Richard Farmer, of Flora, will be yearbook chairman next year.

In December 1941, when the Japanese attacked and captured Guam, five Navy nurses were taken prisoner and sent to a military prison in Japan. In August 1942 they were returned to the U.S. aboard the exchange ship, Gripsholm.

The Park Forest Share the Fun program held last week was very successful. Mrs. Robert Collen, 4H Adviser in Park Forest, and the Share the Fun committee, are to be complimented on an excellent program. Over 200 people enjoyed the talent presented by Park Forest 4 Hers. They also took advantage of the opportunity to look at the exhibits arranged by a number of 4H clubs in the community. Four of the Share the Fun acts from the Park Forest Festival will participate in the county festival to be held at the Homewood Village Hall on May 20. Other 4 Hers in the county are reminded that reservations for acts to compete in this program are due May 15th.

There are a number of demonstration plots being set up by the Agricultural Extension Service to furnish information to farmers about various weed control chemicals and variety performance tests on several crops. I am listing the locations of several demonstrations. Feel free to stop and take a look at any of these demonstration plots. There is an oat variety trial on the Herb Kohl farm, Rich township. The plot is located approximately a quarter mile east of Cicero Avenue, on Vollmer Road.

Two weed control demonstrations on onion sets are established. One on the Simon DeBoer farm, Chicago Heights—the other in South Holland on the James Paarlberg farm.

A dwarf corn variety plot will be set up on the Fred Niemeyer farm in Rich Township. Other plots being arranged are: Thistle control, annual grass control in corn, and quack grass control.

The University of Illinois has established a new 4 year Forestry program at a recent Career Conference at the Rich High school. A number of students indicated interest in forestry. For more information on the Forestry Program, write the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, Urbana.

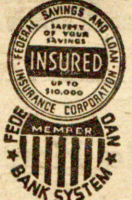

"When, how often, and how much should I fertilize shade and ornamental trees?" This is a popular question among home owners these days. Be careful when using fertilizer on young trees. Never allow the chemical to come in direct contact with the roots. When you apply fertilizer to larger trees, use two pounds of a complete chemical fertilizer for each inch of trunk thickness. Thickness is measured in diameter. The best method of application is to put the fertilizer in holes drilled in the ground under the tree. Holes should be a foot deep, a foot apart, and about half way between the trunk and the farthest branch spread. Spring is the best time to fertilize.

When transplanting vegetables in your garden, set plants slightly deeper than they grew in the greenhouse. Use a starter solution when transplanting to the garden. Use an analysis of about 10-50-10. Starter solutions promote a rapid growth, and larger and earlier yields.

In June, bagworms will begin to hatch from eggs in old cases that have been hanging on trees over winter. These worms will be small and easy to kill with sprays. Later, when they are larger and have damaged the foliage of trees, they are harder to kill. They usually hatch about June 1 in southern Illinois, June 15 in central Illinois and during the last half of June in northern Illinois. If you have had trouble with bagworms on trees and shrubs, plan now to spray those trees, after the worms hatch, with one of the following:

Malation emulsifiable concentrate, 2 teaspoons per gallon of water; Malathion 25% wettable powder, 1 tablespoon per gallon of water; Toxaphene 65% emulsifiable concentrate, 3 teaspoons per gallon of water.

McVey Seeks More Money For Cal-Sag Project

Congressman William E. McVey (R. 4th Illinois District) appeared before the Sub-Committee on Public Works, House Committee on Appropriations, in Washington on May 6, to renew the application for an additional appropriation of $8,500,000.00 to be used for the Cal-Sag Channel project.

Under the program urged by the Illinois congressman, the dredging of the channel would be continued and several railroad bridges would be reconstructed. It was pointed out that 4½ million tons of freight go thru the Cal-Sag each year, with its existing limitations, and that this annual traffic, judging from the industrial expansion which has already taken place in the area, will be increased three or four times within five years after the Cal-Sag project has been completed.

In presenting this application Congressman McVey pointed out that local interests have expended more than 85 million dollars in making improvements which are a part of the development of this waterway system and are expected to continue to meet the requirements for local cooperation.

As he has done for several years in the past, Congressman McVey strongly recommended the appropriation of $8,500,000.00 for the continuation of this work

Reading Program to Be Revised at Orland Park

A new reading program will be inaugurated in the Orland Park grade school, district 135, at the start of the fall semester, for pupils in grades 4 thru 8.

Plans for the new program were formulated at a recent teachers' workshop. It is patterned after the Joplin reading plan which has been used for many years thruout Joplin, Mo. school system.

In practice it breaks down grade barriers for the teaching of reading. For example, if a 4th grade pupil is reading on a 6th grade level, he will be placed in the 6th grade reading group or vice versa.

At the present time teachers may have two or three groups; low, middle and upper reading levels and endeavoring to teach levels ranging from 4th to 8th grade within their room.

When the new system goes into effect, pupils will have reading classes at the same time of the day.

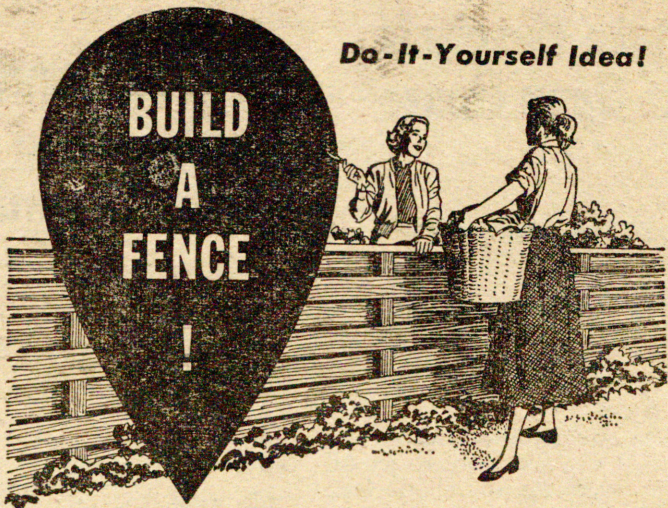

The teachers at Orland have modified the Joplin plan to take into account the actual age of children in the lower and upper groups. Children in these groups will now be nearer their age level when they are placed in their reading level within the reading group.

School Superintendent Norbert Jerling extends an invitation to parents to learn more about the revised reading program by calling or dropping in at the school.

The superintendent, school board and the staff look forward to next year's instructional improvements that will further increase the effectiveness of the school program.

"Pure science covers research for knowledge that may not be used immediately. Without it, none of the great advances since the dawn of the atom age would have been possible. It is essential to future progress."

THE BREMEN BEAT

Sue Watkins, freshman at Bremen community high school, has just received notice that an essay she wrote, "Why I Would Like to Become a Doctor," has been accepted in the Voice of Youth column of the Chicago Tribune.

Besides receiving the cash award, the writer will see her work in the Sunday edition of that newspaper some time in May.

A member of Mrs. Dorothy Aylward's English class, she is the first Bremen student to enter the weekly program.

Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watkins, 6933 West 170th st., Tinley Park, Ill.

The names of the following Illinois state scholarship winners from Bremen Community high school were announced today by T. R. Birkhead, superintendent: Marilyn Marecek, Richard Oliver, Lynn Palmer, Erland Persson, Louis Smith and Maryanne Zawacki.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marecek, 5014 West 159th st., Oak Forest; and Maryanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zawacki, 15730 Washtenaw, Markham; Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oliver, 2829 173rd st. Hazel Crest; and Lynn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Palmer, 3405 W. 183rd st., Markham. Erland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Persson, 14843 S. Keeler, Midlothian; Louis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith 15001 Kildare ave., Midlothian.

"We are indeed proud of these young people from our school," stated Supt. Birkhead, "Assistance in obtaining higher education for students of their ability is of vital importance to the welfare of the state and the nation."

The names of the Illinois scholarship winners listed are part of 2,259 winners across the state. The new state scholarship program will send these winners to the Illinois college of their choice. Performance on an examination, constructed and scored by Science Research associates of Chicago, plus high school scholastic records, were used to determine students' superior capacity to profit from college work. Winners were selected from an original list of 13,552 students who entered the competition on February 1. There were 4,567 semi-finalists. The Feb. 1 examinations were held on 70 college and university campuses in Illinois.

The new scholarship law requires that the applicant be an Illinois resident of good moral character, be in the upper half of his high school class, and choose to attend one of 75 approved Illinois colleges and universities. Dependent on financial aid, stipends cover tuition and fees not to exceed $600.

All winners selected in the 1958 competition must inform the scholarship commission of their acceptance of the award by Friday, May 23. Certificates will be mailed after that date to all winners who accept an Illinois state scholarship.

"Each scholarship awarded is renewable for the normal four year undergraduate program," stated the superintendent, "if students meet the academic requirements of the college they choose to attend. It is expected that most of the winners named today will receive financial aid from the scholarship commission during their four years in college."

"The purpose of the language arts department at Bremen Community High School is to improve communication by developing the skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening" according to Edwin Bruell, chairman.

"Reading is a basic skill which carries over into all school studies. As such it should be accomplished with a high degree of comprehension and an adequate but varying degree of speed to fit the situation. Writing is needed in all phases of living—not merely the creative kind but also the utilitarian, involving the every day writing which needs to be done with clarity, simplicity and logic," the department chairman noted.

He added that speaking ability is needed by everyone, not merely by those in occupations dealing with the public. Sometimes neglected is the art of attentive listening, which results in logical and pertinent action instead of misunderstanding, prejudice and barriers.

The first three years of English are required at Bremen. Thus, the freshman enrolls in English I, in which he learns the fundamentals of grammar. He also writes themes and reads and reviews books (as is the case in all the English courses.) Further, he studies in the textbook a wide variety of literary types.

English II enters more deeply into grammar and includes the classic, Silas Marner, as well as a more mature survey of literature.

American literature is studied in English III with a close correlation with the studies in American history. The finer points of grammar are explored. English IV is optional, with particular emphasis on English literature and the nicer points of grammar, which need to be learned for college entrance.

Speech and journalism are other electives in the senior year to widen the course offerings for various needs.

Two years of Spanish and two years of Latin are offered. These courses are especially recommended for college-bound students. German I will be offered in September of this year.

Language arts teachers are Edwin Bruell, chairman, English III and journalism; Janice Bark, English III and speech; Mildred Ellington, English III and IV; Reta Halderson, English I and III; Mrs. Dorothy Aylward, English I and II; Mildred Rogers, English I and II; Norma Walker, English I and II; Patricia Clarke, English I and II; Mrs. Mary Schultze, English I and II; Patricia Bajt, English I and II; Mrs. Betty Lou Hill, English I and II; Catherine Nutting, Latin I and II; and Betty Butkus, Spanish I and II.

Extends Time to Amend Petition of Annexation

(CNS)—County Judge Otto Kerner has allowed Attorney Franklin Chino time to file an amended petition on behalf of 46 Palos township voters and property owners west of Worth seeking annexation to the village.

The petition will be amended to change the boundary of the land proposed to be annexed after Judge Kerner sustained objections of the Chicago Ridge Landfill Company and ordered the company's 45 acre tract deleted from the 211-acre section included in the petition.

The 45 acre tract is located on the north side of Stony Creek, west of Harlem avenue and runs southwest to 76th ave. The land, bounded by 103rd street on the north, is partly underwater. The landfill company is represented by Attorney Leonard Bosgrof.

Property owners signing the area south of 103rd street annexation petition reside in between Harlem and Roberts road.

The bulk of their property lies between 103rd and 107th streets but the petition also included a strip extending to the Sag Channel and east of Roberts road, if extended.

Attorneys Louis Ancel and Jack M. Siegel represent persons opposed to the annexation who signed a petition seeking a special election to establish the City of Palos Hills in an area bounded roughly by 95th street on the north, the Calumet Sag channel on the south, Keen avenue on the west and Harlem avenue on the east.

This unincorporated area of 3.5 square miles includes land belonging to the other faction.

Siegel said Monday he will file an amendment to the petition and have since decided against establishment of their own government as the City of Palos Hills.

Would Form City

If Siegel's objections to the annexation are sustained at a hearing scheduled for today before Judge Kerner, he will ask for a date for a special election to establish the City.

According to the petition to establish Palos Hills the area contains a population exceeding 1,800.

Two golf courses—Hickory Hills golf club and Walnut Hills Country club—and an adjoining forest preserve area were excluded from the petition to incorporate a new city. The recreational lands are in the central north section of this area.

Here's what it would look like starting at the extreme northwest corner of the proposed city, which would be the southwest corner of 95th street and Keen avenue:

East along 95th street to 88th avenue, south to 96th street, east to 86th avenue, south to 103rd street, east to 84th avenue, north to 99th street, east to 82nd avenue, north to 97th street, east to Roberts road, south to 99th street, east to 78th avenue, south to 103rd street, and east to Harlem.

The proposed western border, starting at 95th street, runs south along Keen avenue to 104th street, east to 90th avenue, south to 105th street, east to 88th avenue, south to 111th street, west back to Keen, then south to the Sag Channel.

The south border extends along the Sag Channel from Keen to Southwest highway. The eastern border abuts the west limits of Worth.

ing annexation to Worth reside in the area once part of Hickory Hills which was "set free" last month when Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher ruled miles of road annexation by the village were illegal because the highways were not contiguous to the village.

Safety Tips On Power Mowers

If you are planning to use a power mower on your lawn this summer, don't just start the motor and roar off, warn the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine. Here are some suggestions which the editors say will help you have a happy and safe summer.

1. When starting the engine, stand with your feet firmly planted in a safe place.

2. When operating, keep in step with the mower without lagging behind or letting it pull you.

3. Learn to disengage the clutch or stop the motor quickly. Shut off the motor whenever you leave the mower, even for a short period.

4. Don't let children come close when the mower is in operation.

5. On inclines, be careful of your footing and balance.

6. Before mowing the lawn, clear it of stones, wire and other debris.

7. Don't use an electric mower when the grass is wet.

8. Don't reach under the deck, chain guards or belt guards. Never attempt to remove anything from the mower until the motor is completely stopped. When you want to work on the underside, first disconnect the spark plug wire. Then tip the mower over by means of the handle.

9. Don't tamper with the governor or try to speed up the engine of a rotary mower. Excessive cutting speed is dangerous.

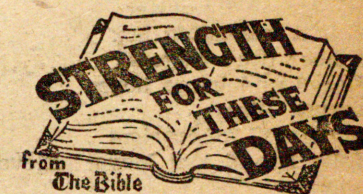

Midlothian School Files Suit to Get Playground Site

(CNS)—Condemnation suit has been filed in Superior court to acquire the northwest corner of 146th street and Harding avenue, Midlothian, for Midlothian Grade School District 143.

Attorney Franklin Klein, representing the school district, said the vacant land is needed for a playground across the street on Harding.

The school district now owns four adjoining lots with a frontage of 60 feet each, which coupled with the corner property would provide a playground 360 feet wide, he said.

The suit said the school district has been unable to agree on a fair price for the corner. It is owned by Miss Dolores Escalante, a secretary for a downtown Chicago firm.

In God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.—(Psalm 62, 7.)

Let us then daily affirm—not once but continually—that the only true and lasting happiness on earth is to be found in God and in serving Him: that in Him alone can we find the strength to bear life's inevitable sorrow and adversity: that in Him alone is the joyous peace we all seek and may have.

Ask What's to Become of Hole When Peat's Gone

A request that the Orland Park village board commit itself now as to the zoning classification of a 40 acre tract in the event it should ever be annexed has been filed by the Pullman Trust and Savings bank in the capacity of trustee for the property.

The property runs north of 159th street, immediately east of the Wabash railroad right of way. The petitioner asks that it be classified for light industry and wants the board to agree to such classification should the tract become annexed to Orland Park at some future date.

Right now, the board is informed a contractor is removing humus and peat from the premises and that is reported as the intended use for the property if rezoned as light industry.

Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., said there were some complaints heard relative to the use of land as now followed, the complainants wondering what will happen when the job is done—will the hole be filled up with earth or water.

Recently the board reclassified Herman Gee's property on 108th ave. and 159th so that in the event it ever becomes annexed it will come into the village zoned for light industry.

The village zoning ordinance was amended Monday to change a lot owned by Mrs. Alice Doogan from Class A, residential to Class B, commercial, which was its former status. The lot is adjacent to and back of the one occupied by a gas station at U. S. 6 and 143rd, operated by Melville Doogan.

On May 13, 1908, by act of Congress, the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps was established.

As I'm writing this, a perfect Mother's Day is drawing to a close. The weather has been warm and wonderful, the tulips opened out in their full glory in honor of the day, and my mother-in-law and I were treated the unique (for us) experience of sitting down to a dinner prepared wholly by our two sons, Harold and Lawrence.

I think Grandma was a little dubious at the prospect of a meal cooked by two such amateur chefs, but the roast lamb, baked potatoes and tossed salad were delicious, topped off with a dessert of frozen peach sundaes, which was the only part of the meal touched by feminine hands, but that was last September, when I "did up" the peaches.

The male half of the family even took care of all the dishes, with a sigh of relief that Mother's Day comes but once a year.

Speaking of dinners, Marge and Jim Mussatto, of 6351 Kimberly, entertained a group of friends recently at a real Italian spaghetti dinner. The party was augmented by the arrival later in the evening of several more couples, and a grand time was had by all. Among those present were the Heinbeckers, Schuelers, Doyles, Poppes, and Sorensens.

The circus is in town—or at least a reasonable facsimile of one—as the Cub Scouts of Pack No. 255 have their pack meeting on Thursday, May 15.

The boys and their mothers have thought up some ingenious costumes and acts, and circus night promises to be a hilarious occasion.

Harold DeRuntz and son, Billy had a narrow escape last week, when their truck hit a very bad spot in the road and went into the ditch. Quick thinking on the part of Mr. DeRuntz saved them from tipping over, but they welcomed the kind assistance of George Ames, who pulled them out.

The road graders are out, and I understand our roads will soon be put in much better condition.

During the past week Father O'Connell of St. George church has been visiting and blessing the homes of his new parishioners. The wording of the ceremony is very beautiful, and if the Good Lord sees fit to send even portion of all those spiritual gifts, our families shall be blessed indeed.

Homeowner's Association

A general meeting of the Homeowners' association will be held Sunday, May 18, at 2 p.m. in the home of Ivo Mersmann, 16471 Beverly ave. An interesting program has been planned with several speakers, among them Leland Rayson, township assessor, who will be glad to answer any questions you may have with regard to real estate taxes. The committee hopes to have present as close as possible to 100 per cent representation of the homeowners of Kimberly Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Walsh spent the Mother's Day weekend with their son, R. Herbert Gilbert at Purdue University. His fraternity had a full weekend planned, beginning with Saturday's luncheon at which time the sons each presented their mothers with an orchid corsage.

After the University Sing and the Mother's auction (to make money for the sons' fraternity) the evening entertainment was a water show.

On Sunday the mothers and sons had dinner together at the PKA house while the dads got together for dinner at the Flame restaurant.

The fire department also announce that a 2-way radio has been installed and in working order in the fire truck. A radio is also installed in the fire house in order to contact the trucks. The men wish to thank all the donors who made this project possible.

The firemen did it again this week. Sunday morning, a small fire in the rear part of the Schmaedeke building, not much damage. Sunday nite, an unoccupied house on 157th and 113th Ct., some damage. In both cases, the cause unknown. Early Monday morning the refuse in the garbage truck which covers Orland area, was burning. The truck was near the fire house, so was quickly extinguished.

last year, covering routine expenses. Adding $13,500 to $35,056 brings the total to $48,556.

Has Extra Money

Knowing that it would have some extra funds this year the village board has been discussing various improvements which would be beneficial to the community. One of those agreed upon is an improved lighting system for Lincoln highway, which also serves as the main business street. A total of $8,000 has been earmarked for this purpose and is expected to provide 15 mercury vapor lights in the three blocks beginning at Church street and going west to Oak Drive.

Also appropriated is $3,000 for drainage. For years an area centering at Second ave. and Pine st. has been a headache to village officials as well as residents. Heavy rains saturated the ground and it is claimed that as a result septic systems fail to work. The result is that the ditches alongside the roads are filled with water, water that contains raw sewage.

It is contended that if the surface water can be carried off, the septic systems will function properly and sewage will not run into the streets. This year the village proposes to install a tile line to drain off storm water. Board members believe this can be done for less than $3,000 but appropriated that amount to allow for contingencies.

Trustee Leonard Heimerdinger reported that he has been talking with property owners and finds them agreeable to granting an easement along the back of their lot lines to accommodate the tile line. There had been talk previously of running the line along the streets involved but if that course is followed the ditches would have to be so deep that the cost would be prohibitive, it was explained.

Will Swat Mosquitoes

Heimerdinger said that by installing the tile along the rear of the lot lines it would be necessary to dig down only about three feet.

The board also allocated $500 for a recreational program for the youth of the village; an additional $500 to the village garage building fund, bringing it up to $3,500; $500 to finance a dog control ordinance; $400 for a mosquito abatement program and $100 for a village beautification plan.

This last would be carried out by the New Lenox Garden Club. The club will do the work and the village will furnish the shrubs, plants and other material necessary to beautify the village lot and the two adjoining properties on Church st., the library and the fire district. Trustee Ronald Vondrasek has made the arrangements.

The appropriation ordinance also carries $500 to obtain expert opinion in preparing a building code for the village. Officials have been talking with Levon Seron, Joliet architect, relative to the problem. Seron, they said, has had experience in drafting such codes.

During the discussion at the board meeting on Wednesday night of last week it was first suggested that $1,000 be earmarked for this purpose but later it was agreed to reduce the amount to $500 after Trustee Heimerdinger opposed it. He finally agreed to spend $500, if necessary, to prepare such an ordinance but it is his contention that the job could be done by New Lenox contractors without any expense to the village.

The appropriation ordinance in detail is published elsewhere in this issue.

Approves Zoning Decisions

Recommendations by the zoning board of appeals were concurred in by the village board.

In one a variation was allowed covering the setback of a house built by Lloyd B. Roe on the south side of Fourth ave., between Cedar and Pine. The lots are shallow there and the setback was reduced from 30 feet to 18 feet.

In the other case a request that the property owned by the late Dr. Jeanette Holt at the northwest corner of Hickory and Pine streets be reclassified from residential to business was denied.

The council also adopted a resolution empowering Village Clerk Robert J. McCleary to check the location of all prospective buildings to ascertain if they conform with rules covering setback and side yards before construction is begun. The fee for building permits was set at $10.

Mayor Lloyd Berlin sent a letter to Ralph Newkirk, county zoning officer, stating that New Lenox residents were disturbed by the appearance of a house trailer west of the village between U. S. 30 and the Rock Island tracks and were opposed to the location of a trailer park there.

Village Clerk McCleary was instructed by the council, on suggestion of Trustee Stanley Gilmore, to write the state highway department to see if something could be done to protect drivers making left turns on and off U. S. 30 from the Economy Market parking lot. Traffic on the highway is permitted to move at 40 miles an hour in this stretch now.

Trustee Keith Hossack, who is in charge of streets, has had a crew trimming brush and cutting trees encroaching on street right of way. Rumors have been circulating that the village is preparing to widen streets. Hossack said that he is not widening streets but merely the use of same.

CRITICIZES TV

"The continued emphasis of crime in television programs accomplishes one end which few may realize. It has a tendency to cheapen life. Television characters 'die' by the dozens every day in racket shows, westerns, highway stories, water front dramas, police case histories, etc. A young mind is impressed—the wrong way."

Orland Backs Suburban Transits' Request for 60-Day Trial Permit

(CNS)—Eagle Bus Lines and Continental Air Transport continue to oppose Suburban Transit system's plan to extend its existing routes to link Orland Park and the Chicago Loop.

The renewed objects came at a second hearing before the Illinois Commerce Commission in Chicago.

At the same time Orland Park Attorney Raymond Pieper and Oak Lawn Attorney Gerhardt Gliege supported Suburban Transit's proposed operation on a 60-day trial run basis.

Both village attorneys said there is no direct transportation from the suburban municipalities to Chicago's loop. They testified that the villages are growing in population.

Pieper said three or four building permits are issued in Orland Park each week for construction of homes.

Also testifying was Orland Park Chamber of Commerce president, Roy Benson who said that 150 homes have been built in the village during the last two years. Dr. Elmer Schuessler, an Orland Park dentist, sided with the other three witnesses by telling of the need for a direct bus service to the loop.

Earlier the ICC denied a motion of Eagle Bus to dismiss Suburban Transit's application to operate between Orland Park, Palos Park, Palos Heights, Worth, Chicago Ridge, Oak Lawn, and downtown Chicago.

Eagle Bus lines feeds into Hawthorne race track, 35th st., and Cicero avenue, from the loop, from 55th and 53rd streets and Cottage Grove avenue, and from 79th street and Stony Island avenue.

Continental Air Transport goes to Midway airport.

At an earlier hearing before the ICC the City of Chicago and the CTA said they will resist any additional traffic on already crowded city streets.

Next Hearing May 27

Suburban Transit now has runs from Palos Park to 63rd and Halsted streets; in Cicero avenue between 161st and 63rd streets, and in Roberts road to Argo.

Under the proposed extension, Orland Park, presently without any bus service, would be included and three round trips would be made Monday thru Saturday from 143rd street and West avenue in Roberts road, 135th street, Harlem avenue, 111th street, Ridgeland avenue, 95th street, Cicero avenue, Ogden avenue, and Randolph street to the Greyhound terminal.

James Betinis, president of the line, said previously that no passengers would be picked up north and east of 79th street and Cicero avenue, northbound, and none would be discharged north of that point on southbound trips.

He added the company was offering the service at the request of Orland Park residents.

The new route would enable riders on the company's Stickney loop at 79th and Cicero, Cicero-Cicero route to transfer for fares would range from 2.5 to 3 cents per mile, Betinis said.

He asked that a 60 day trial period be allowed to determine whether the operation is feasible and profitable.

Eagle Bus Lines doesn't want Suburban Transit to pick up passengers at Sportman's Park race track, Cicero, and Hawthorne Park race track, Stickney township.

Continental Air Transport is protesting Suburban Transit's hopes to pick up and discharge passengers at Midway airport.

Suburban Transit will ask ICC authority to operate on a permanent basis if the proposed 60 day trial operation—if approved—shows a profit, Betinis said earlier. The company has 21 buses.

Another hearing is set for May 27 before the ICC in Chicago.

BOARD SAYS—

several months ago and immediately turned over to the recently created village plan commission which is headed by Maurice P. Angland as chairman.

The plan commission held some hearings and made an investigation of the case and last month came up with recommendation to the village board that the request of St. John church be denied. In making its recommendation the plan commission gave the village board excerpts of opinions from two other law firms, one in Joliet and one in Chicago, as well as from Village Attorney Hooleyhan. All were agreed that the village cannot legally give St. John church an easement to a strip of park land for a driveway. The church has a parking lot at the north end of what will be its Sunday school building but for the convenience of persons attending services the church wants a driveway leading to the entrance of the east side of the new building.

Altho the plan commission's recommendation had been received by Mayor Marti prior to the regular meeting of the board last week no reference was made to it then nor at the meeting Monday night.

According to Mayor Marti's statement issued at the board meeting Monday night, purporting to express the common view of the board, that body is saying "No—but not positively."

"While it is legally impossible to grant St. John church an easement or to construct a roadway over the west end of the park property," the mayor said, "the board will again consider the problem after construction of the building to see if anything within the village's authority can be done to help solve any problems that exist."
